

FORGING A COLLABORATIVE RELATIONSHIP

A workshop empowering parents of children with special needs to achieve success in education.

Tuesday, October 20

7:15 – 9:00pm

Nathanael B. Greene Community Center
32 Church Street, Guilford, CT

WHEN YOUR CHILD IS AT-RISK FOR ACADEMIC DIFFICULTIES

Speakers:

Dr. Tina Newman and Dr. Lesley Hart

Yale Child Study Center, New Haven and Madison

- The components of a successful intervention program for different types of learning needs
- How to identify and target goals identified for individual students and assess the effectiveness
- Strategies to improve academic performance

UNDERSTANDING SPECIAL EDUCATION FROM A LEGAL PERSPECTIVE

Speakers:

Attorneys Howard Klebanoff and Lawrence Berliner

Klebanoff & Alfano, P.C., West Hartford and Fairfield

- Legal and educational rights of children with disabilities
 - Strategic planning for IEP meetings
- Parents advocacy and the need to be informed, focused and assertive

This Event is free and open to all.

Seating is limited.

To make a reservation and to learn more, contact

Rich Walter, Director of DJE,

Jewish Federation 203 387-2424 x300

or rwalter@jewishnewhaven.org

